WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN.

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over forty years' experience—a skillful and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter has the most careful consideration and is regarded as strictly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment cures in the privacy of your home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands of bad cases. It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.—take his advice and be well.

Mrs. R. D. Montfort, of Lebanon, Warren Co., O., writes: "I have received the 'Medical Adviser.' A crisp, new five dollar bill could not tempt me to part with it. On receipt of 21 one-cent stamps, to pay cost of mailing only, we will send to any address a paper-bound copy of Dr. Pierce's great 1000-page book, 'The Common Sense Medical Adviser.' Or, for 31 stamps the same in cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y."

The Original LITTLE LIVER PILLS. First put up by old Dr. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated, but never equaled. Little pill, little dose, but give great results in a curative way in all derangements of Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It always itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect," said a leading druggist. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SCENE IN THE HOUSE.

The House of Representatives yesterday devoted its entire session to discussion of the impeachment charges against Judge Chas. Swayne, of the Northern District of Florida. A dramatic incident occurred when Mr. Littlefield, of Maine, called on Mr. Lamar, of Florida, who filed the charges against the judge, to admit or repudiate an alleged interview which the former claimed tended to incite the people to commit an act of violence against Judge Swayne. Mr. Lamar admitted giving an interview, but emphatically denied any suggestion from him that could be construed into advising assassination or murder.

Mr. Lamar said that any language imputing to him the statement that Judge Swayne's life was in danger was absolutely incorrect, but had said that if the proceedings in the House terminated in nothing it would be because the House did not understand the conditions in Florida; that he looked up Judge Swayne "as utterly corrupt and utterly tyrannical and the most lawless man in the State of Florida."

Mr. Lamar declared that he stated in the interview "that if nothing appealed to Judge Swayne, neither law nor humanity, in his own lawless career, then I would point out to him the fact that his arbitrary and tyrannical action might result in some ill-ordered brain or some revengeful brain that suffered at his hands inflicting violence upon him."

The most intense interest was exhibited in this phase of the debate, and members leaned forward to catch every word.

Mr. Littlefield said it grieved him profoundly that a member of the House had preached "incitement to assassination and murder."

"I deny any suggestion of violence to Judge Swayne," exclaimed Mr. Lamar, who further said that "the fact that he has remained in my State so long secure in his lawless career is evidence of that."

"Do you think," interjected Mr. Robinson (Ark.), addressing Mr. Littlefield, "after the statement by the gentleman from Florida, that he justified assassination?"

"I protest here and now," exclaimed Mr. Littlefield, "that no language put into public prints and read by the common people, and which urges assassination or incitement to murder is trivial in its character."

Mr. Lamar was promptly on his feet and declared that while he did not think Mr. Littlefield intentionally charged him with inciting murder, Mr. Littlefield certainly had almost blindly misapprehended what really was said. If, said Mr. Lamar, anyone used his language in the interview to impute that he suggested violence to Judge Swayne he would denounce it as a malicious falsehood.

"The gentleman's denunciation disturbs nobody," replied Mr. Littlefield, who added that, unfortunately for Mr. Lamar, the ordinary citizen of the United States would so construe it, "and it is for that reason the language does great violence to the character of the distinguished gentleman from Florida."

General applause greeted an inquiry by Mr. Gaines (Tenn.) why Mr. Littlefield did not confine himself to a discussion of the record, as he a short time before was "kicking" about it not being done.

"Is the gentleman disturbed?" sarcastically retorted Mr. Littlefield.

A storm of applause followed the reply of Mr. Gaines that he was disturbed in his confidence in Mr. Littlefield's fairness. Mr. Littlefield then declared that a part of the testimony of Judge Swayne was not reported, and asked who did the reporting.

"Oh," answered Mr. Palmer, "the colored man employed by the judiciary committee."

Mr. Littlefield charged that the judiciary committee had edited out of the record certain statements of Judge Swayne which they embodied in their report.

Mr. Palmer (Pa.), chairman of the committee of seven appointed by the Speaker to prepare the case against Judge Swayne, explained that the majority of the committee had reached their conclusions after most painstaking deliberation, and it remained for the House itself to take such further action in the case as it might deem proper.

Replying to a question by Mr. Cokeran (N. Y.), as to whether any litigant was oppressed by the alleged failure of Judge Swayne to acquire a legal residence in his district, Mr. Palmer said the evidence abounded in such cases. He discussed at length the statute governing contempt cases, and said it was "so plain that a wayfarer man or a fool may not err therein." That, he said, was "where this man has sinned."

Mr. Palmer reviewed the contempt cases of Belton and Davis, saying that Judge Swayne claimed the punishment of the two men was moderate.

"I hope," he added, "God will be good to the men that Judge Swayne imposes a severe sentence upon."

Referring to the real estate transaction of Judge Swayne in Pensacola, Mr. Palmer said that no other judge on earth would have done such a thing.

Judge Swayne's court, he said, was reeking with bankruptcies, scandals and suicides, and he did not believe the Judge had a friend in his district.

Mr. Palmer vehemently declared that the statement that other judges than Swayne had charged $10 a day for expenses was a slander on the judiciary of the United States.

"There is not," he said, "a syllable of testimony in this record or anywhere on earth, that any judge ever did this thing but Judge Swayne."

The Chadwick Jewels.

Nathan Looser, of Cleveland, Ohio, receiver for Mrs. Chadwick, has made an examination of the jewelry held by Henry W. Wuerst, of Elvira, Ohio, as collateral for a loan. Mr. Looser estimates the value of the jewels at $17,000. The most valuable piece in the lot is a magnificent collar, set with diamonds, rubies, pearls, amethysts and other precious stones. The value of this collar alone is placed at $10,000.

The entire collection is believed to have originally cost Mrs. Chadwick $25,000 or more. It is stated that the customs officers have succeeded in finding a number of additional lots of jewels brought into this country by Mrs. Chadwick upon which no duty was paid.

It is estimated that the officials have up to this time located not less than $125,000 worth of such diamonds and jewelry. These valuables were either put up as security for loans or given away by Mrs. Chadwick. Of all the great quantity of jewels brought into this country by Mrs. Chadwick it is declared that duty on less than $11,000 worth was actually entered and paid.

So far as can be learned, no duty was paid on the jewels now in the possession of Henry Wuerst, of Elvira. A customs inspector recently made a thorough examination of the latter property.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, I took Dr. King's New Discovery, and I was cured in 14 days. I gained 38 pounds. It is absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store."

Tonic to the System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than Dr. Williams' Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of Lafayette, Ind., says: "No use talking. Dr. Williams' Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. Dr. Williams' Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the most reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold by all druggists.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

All who use Atomizers in treating nasal catarrh will get the best result from Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price, including spraying tube, 75c. Sold by druggists or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren St., N. Y.

New Orleans, Sept. 1, 1900. Messrs. ELY BROS.—I sold two bottles of your Liquid Cream Balm to a customer, Wm. Laubert, 1415 Delachaise St., New Orleans; he used the two bottles, giving him wonderful and most satisfactory results. GEO. W. DUFF, Pharmacist.
